

“A list of exceptional debut novels set in the American South”
—Publisher’s Weekly

Crook’s Corner Book Prize Shortlist

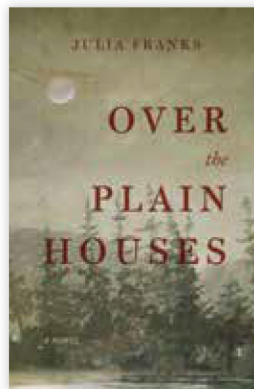

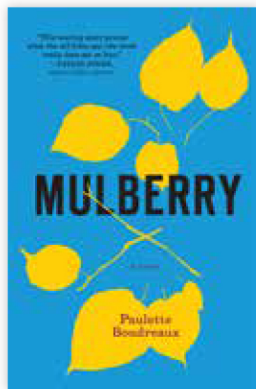

Finalists for 2017:

Mulberry by PAULETTE BOUDREAUX (Carolina Wren Press)

Over the Plain Houses by JULIA FRANKS (Hub City Press)

Hide by MATTHEW GRIFFIN (Bloomsbury, USA)

“Two things the south has in spades is good food and great writers. Crook’s Corner took a cue from the Bohemian cafés of Paris for a concept well suited to Southern soil—the Crook’s Corner Book Prize.”—Garden & Gun

Winner of the $5000 prize to be announced January 2017. The prize is in its fourth year.
For more information visit crookscornerbookprize.com.